

Frank
[Signature]

TO

MISS ROSALIND G. ROWSELL.

Gently row, Gondolier

BARCAROLLE.

WORDS BY

John Lodge Ellerton, Esq.

MUSIC BY

FRANK D'ALQUEN.

Ent. Sta. Hall.

Price 3^s

London,
ASHDOWN & PARRY, 18, HANOVER SQUARE.

cool - est ze - phyr's soft - ly creep, Where cool - est ze - phyr's, cool - est zephyrs soft - - ly . . . creep: . . . mf The heav'ns a - bove all calm ap - pear, And mir - - ror - like the spark - ling sea;

dolce. Through the air, from a - far, Come notes of dis - tant me - lo - dy!

Oh! the night.... seems more bright, While we thus o'er the

PED * PED * PED *

wa - ters sweep, And side by side our souls re - sign To thoughts for words to breathe too deep, for words to breathe too deep.

PED *

Gen - tly row, ... gon - do - lier! O'er the blue and moon - lit deep;

Steer thy bark, gon - do - lier! Where cool - est ze - phyr

PED * PED * PED *

soft - ly creep, Where cool - est ze - phyr, cool - est ze - phyr

soft - ly . . . creep. Allegro risoluto.

PED

meno allegro.

rit: dolce.

PED PED * PED *

Gen - tly row, ... gon - do - lier! Half the night is scarce - ly o'er;

PED * PED *

Gen - tly row, till dawn appear, Far from the cold and gloo - my shore, Far from the cold and gloomy shore, the cold and gloomy shore: As

PED * cres: PED * PED *

poco rit:

yet the moon in heav'n is high, And fai - ry barks are glancing by. Still a tempo.

mf PED * PED * PED *

dolce.

through the air, from a - far, Come wand'ring notes of me - lo - dy!

PED * PED * PED

Oh! the night seems more bright While thus we o'er the waters sweep, And

mf PED *

side by side our souls re - sign To thoughts, for words to breathe, too deep, for words to breathe too deep. Gen - tly row, rit: PED

gon-do-lier! Half the night is scarce-ly o'er; Gen-tly row, till dawn appear, Far from the cold and gloomy shore, Far from the cold and gloomy shore, the cold and gloomy shore. Allegro risoluto.

PED *

PED

rit: f

p f p

PED * PED PED